Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.)
Presbyterian Mission

The Pentecost Offering is one of four annual special offerings. The church-wide Special Offerings of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) play an important role in defining what it means to be a connectional church in the twenty-first century, bringing together the diversity of the PC (USA) to focus and take faith-based action on shared concerns. The Offerings offer opportunities for partnership, learning and witness, and profoundly affect the life of the church as a collective witness to Jesus Christ's love for the whole church.

Building a Life of Faith

God,
 teach us
 through every young person
 we meet.
 May we see
 your house,
 not only as a place where young people
 are present,
 but where they are actively building
 the world
 you would have us
 make.

AMEN.

Langley Hoyt spent a year in Washington, DC as a Young Adult Volunteer; an experience that reinforced the importance of her faith as she continues to discern how she wants “to live and be in the world,” particularly in the light of the PC(USA)’s Matthew 25 invitation’s to “build congregational vitality, dismantle structural racism and eradicate systemic poverty.”

Langley is a teacher.

When the Revs. Myung Sung “Martin” Han and Jieun Kim Han, accepted the call to serve the church from Seoul, Korea, their 15-year old daughter Sami left many things behind — but not her deeply felt connectedness to her church. Sami believes that youth can generate ideas for more effective worship services that speak to younger generations, and looks forward to being involved in hands-on mission projects and church youth activities in South Korea.

Sami is a teacher.

With a foundation in faith built in the early years, our youth can teach us something about leading movements for change in their own communities and in the world. Gifts to the Pentecost Offering are helping to provide opportunities for young people to grow and share in their faith in Christ.

The gifts we share will help young people learn important lessons about life and faith. And children, youth, and young adults can teach us new things and help us shape our faith, too.

Please give generously...for if we all do a little, it adds up to a lot.
