

The Story of Pentecost Script

Before he died and rose again, when Jesus knew the time was coming when he would go away, he told his disciples something important. (lay down the Jesus circle)

“When I’m gone, you won’t be all alone. God will send a friend, a helper, a comforter to be with you forever. (add the Friends/Heart circle) The Holy Spirit will be with you. I am going away, and also, I am coming to you.”

The disciples didn’t know what to think. (add the Question circle) And so much happened after Jesus said those words that they almost forgot. But later, after Jesus had died, had risen again, and then had gone away, they remembered. It happened like this.

On the day of Pentecost, they were in Jerusalem. (add the Jerusalem circle)

They were all together in one room, feeling sad and sort of afraid. (add the Sad Face circle)

Jesus was gone. But suddenly, into the room and into each of them, came the Holy Spirit! In a rush, with what felt like wind (add the Wind circle) and looked like fire (add the Fire circle), the Spirit of God changed everything.

It was the birthday, the very first day of the church! (add the Birthday circle)

The disciples remembered what Jesus had said—I am coming to you. The Holy Spirit was the friend he had promised. (add the Pentecost circle)

(Rearrange the circles into a C shape, and trace the shape as you say...)

The Spirit comforted them (trace the C shape) when they were sad or afraid.

The Spirit counseled them (trace the C shape) to follow the way of Jesus.

The Spirit connected them (trace the C shape) to each other in love and faith.

The Spirit gave them courage (trace the C shape) to share the good news about Jesus.
